To whom it may concern,

I'm writing this letter because I Matthew Fisher had received paperwork stating that I'm being accused of some things that had happened to Plaintiff Ryan Richmond. At the time I was C/O Fisher and worked the 4-12 shift at the time and worked with C/O Glick in the infirmary but as May 2014 I no long work for the prison . The plaintiff is stating that we didn't follow the dr's orders for him to come out for physcial therapy. If the dr had orders in the inmates chart to stop the therapy that is what we went by or was told by the shift supervisor or shift commander pryer to our shift or we were briefed by the 8-4 shift of the changes to anyone in the infirmary.I don't feel that i'm the cause of what had happened to him or anything else that he is claiming happened to him. I'm sorry if he feels that we caused all his pain. I wish him the best of luck in the near future.
